Constitution of All-India high judicial service association

†3748. SHRIMATI KUM KUM RAI: Will the Minister of LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is a proposal under Government's consideration to constitute an All India High Judicial Service Association with a view to bringing Uniformity in the code of Judicial service in the country;

(b) Government's reaction to the said proposal;

(c) whether Government propose to constitute the said Association with a view to providing better judiciary services; and

(d) if so, by when and if not, the reasons therefore?

THE Minister of LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI ARUN JAITELY): (a) to (d) No, Madam. There is no proposal for constitution of an All India Judicial Service Association under consideration of the Government.

However, the matter relating to the creation of an All India Judicial Service is under consideration of the Government. This is one of the proposals for judicial reforms. Necessary consultation is in progress with the newly created States and High Courts.

Creation of an All India Judicial Service will require a Resolution in the Rajya Sabha to be passed by not less than two-thirds of the members present and voting, followed by an appropriate enactment by Parliament under article 312 of the Constitution of India. Hence, no definite time frame can be given.
